

Carl Sandburg College believes a Naming Rights policy is important to the further development of the Advancement Office. This Naming Rights policy will ensure that buildings, property, and/or any space within the greater college community has consistent limits and thresholds for all donors. The Board of Trustees retains all rights to determine naming or renaming.