

Carl Sandburg College recognizes that a student may have fulfilled expected knowledge and/or competency levels for certain courses and program requirements; therefore, a student shall have the opportunity to receive advanced placement credit at the College.