

The Board charges the administration to establish and implement disciplinary regulations and procedures for student violations of college rules and regulations including plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty.