

The regulations and procedures of the College shall provide for curricular and programmatic advisory committees. These committees may be comprised of graduates, employers, and other persons who may be of assistance in developing and maintaining quality institutional and academic standards and programs.