

Carl Sandburg College is committed to providing employees with training and professional development opportunities. To support a culture of professional growth and remain in compliance with external accreditors, employees will participate in training deemed mandatory. This training would include all mandated federal and state training, and other training that the Administration deems necessary to support the mission and policies of the college.