

The regulations and procedures of the College shall provide for a decision-making process involving employee consultation. Faculty shall be consulted in areas such as curriculum, subject matter, faculty evaluation, academic standards, and student affairs relating to the aforementioned areas.